A WAY THEY HAVE

What This Gainesville Citizen Says
Only Corroborates the Story of Thousands.

The particulars related by this representative citizen of Gainesville are similar to hundreds of others in this city. When there are scores of people, all anxious to tell about the benefits received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, the greatest skeptic in Gainesville must be convinced. Read the following:

Mrs. S. E. Pinkoson, living at 609 W. Liberty street, Gainesville, Fla., says: "My daughter had been in poor health for some time, and I am sure that it was all due to weakened kidneys. She was not strong, felt nervous and was subject to dull headaches. These symptoms, together with others that existed, induced me to procure a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at J. S. Bodiford & Co's. My daughter used them accordingly to directions, and I am glad to say that she was cured. I feel that I owe a great deal to Doan's Kidney Pills, and am glad to recommend them to any person suffering from kidney disease."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Golons Enter Upon Another Week of Lawmaking.

Atlanta, Sept. 15.—Freshened by a two-day's sojourn with loved ones at home and familiarized with the wishes of their constituents, the members of the legislature Monday resumed the consideration of the convict question. Practically the entire membership of the assembly has been at home since Friday night or Saturday morning, and they returned to their duty better prepared to deal intelligently with the problem.

New Bill in Senate.

A new convict bill is promised in the senate. It will be offered as a substitute to the Born bill, and it is believed it will be passed.

It is stated that a majority of the senate is committed to the substitute, and, the filibuster having been abandoned, it is claimed that the substitute should have comparatively easy sailing. The senate has already limited speeches to ten minutes, and debate on the measure will necessarily be short, as compared to previous discussions.

The advocates of the substitute—the anti-lease senators—claim at least twenty-five votes for the substitute, with a possibility of twenty-seven.

Follows County Plan.

The substitute is built upon what is commonly called the county plan. It provides that the counties of the state may work their proportionate part of the convicts free of charge, and that the "overs" shall also be distributed among the counties wanting them, provided, however, that the counties not taking their quota shall be credited with the number coming to them, while the counties taking "overs" shall be charged with the number they get.

The counties taking the "overs" shall pay the counties not taking in work upon their public roads.

It is claimed that the plan would minimize expense, and enable the abolition of the lease on April 1, 1909.

Having passed the measure as a substitute for the Born bill, the senate will then, if the plan carries, reconsider its action in passing the "skid-doo" substitute to the Holder bill. The new bill will then be passed as a substitute to the Holder bill.

WHITE RAT LEAGUE.

Believe They Could Weild Power in Presidential Campaign.

New York, Sept. 15.—Secretary Harry Munford, of the newly organized White Rats Political League, declared in a speech before that organization Sunday night that the actors of the country, if united could, by their "gags" alone, influence a presidential campaign.

"Ridicule a candidate in your gags," said he, "and you will lose him more votes than all the speeches in the country. Nothing kills quicker than ridicule."

Resolutions were adopted at the meeting urging actors all over the country to exercise their too-often neglected right of suffrage and the tenor of the speeches made were that the members of the profession could by uniting become a political power and gain redress from managers and booking agents for various grievances.

Wilton Lackaye was cheered when he denounced the new booking system and described the efforts being made by the White Rats, of which the league is an auxiliary, to obtain a new copyright law to prevent phonograph companies from appropriating theatrical songs and jokes without payment of royalties.

Dennis F. O'Brien, counsel of the White Rats, Assemblyman W. B. Donhee, William Mailly, editor of the Socialist daily paper, the Evening Call, and others made speeches.

A cablegram from Fred Niblo, president of the White Rats who is now in London, urged those at the meeting to become politically active and to vote. The International Artists association, the counterpart of the White Rats, cabled God speed from Berlin.

About eight hundred actors and actresses were at the meeting.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. train from Pendleton to LeGrande, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well-known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said: 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into LeGrande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into LeGrande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by all druggists.

Fell from Ninth Floor.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 15.—William L. Reed of Portsmouth, O., an Elk, and prominent in insurance circles, was killed instantly by a fall from the ninth floor of the Havelin hotel in this city Monday. He suffered from cancer and was in the city for treatment. Nothing has developed to warrant suggestions of suicide, but several letters, written and left by him may clear away that suspicion.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Continue Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germs, which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newmark's Hairdye.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newmark's Hairdye.

Accept no substitutes. "Destroy the germ and remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send for a specimen sample to The Hairdye Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00. J. S. Bodiford & Co., Special Agents.

SENSATIONAL SUICIDE.

Woman Leaped to Death from Arc du Triomphe.

Paris, Sept. 15.—Another woman has sought the Arc du Triomphe as a means of putting an end to her life.

The act of Sunday was particularly horrifying, for as the woman jumped her dress caught on a cornice and she hung suspended for several minutes.

She was in full view of the horror-stricken spectators below and the sightseers on the platform.

The latter tried to rescue her, but before any one could get to the place where she was suspended her dress gave way and the woman dropped to the pavement below, where she was crushed to death.

The identity of the suicide has not yet been established.

She was dressed expensively and well.

EVERY NON-PROGRESSIVE MERCHANT BECOMES

Your Competitor

When You Cease to Advertise Aggressively

WHEN a merchant "slows up" in his advertising, and concludes to "save a little money" in that direction, then the merchant who never had the courage and foresight to advertise adequately BECOMES A REAL COMPETITOR. Even the merchant who never advertises at all reaps a certain amount of profit from the "slowing up" process of the live store.

Not many merchants, of course, who have at any time set the pace for progressive advertising, will be content to take a backward plunge into the company of the non-progressives, of the LITTLE MERCHANTS, the easily satisfied ones, the un-awakes! But that is just what the "live one" does when he imagines that his advertising is costing too much, and that its curtailment means "saving."

If business conditions ever suggest retrenchment in advertising, the wise merchant knows that this should be interpreted as a signal for "full speed ahead," for redoubled efforts to WIN the business that does not come so easily as usual.
